

Veterinary Territory Managers- Permanent full-time

3 vacancies:

- London/Kent
- South West inc South Wales
- Northern England inc North Wales

Due to expansion, Forte Healthcare Ltd are recruiting for Veterinary Territory Managers.

If you are a driven, outgoing individual, that is adaptable, self-motivated, confident talking to new people/presenting, and enjoys working both individually and as part of a team, then Forte could be for you. Selling a range of mixed species (Companion, Farm & Equine) niche pharmaceuticals, as well as generics, to Vets across the above territory locations.

This sort of role will suit a pro-active relationship builder and negotiator, with great organization skills; someone who is not afraid to open doors, and close sales.

Overnight stays away from home and attendance at weekend exhibitions will be occasionally required.

This is a fantastic opportunity to work for an innovative, progressive and fast-growing company.

Package:

A competitive basic salary is on offer, along with an open-ended bonus structure, along with a company car and other benefits.
